

Job Description

Membership and Services Officer

Job Title:	Membership and Services Officer
Reporting to:	ARC England Director
Location:	ARC Office, Chesterfield
Hours of Work:	35 hours per week
Salary Scale:	Scale 4 starting at £17,721 to £20,139 (pro-rata if applicable)

Main Purpose of Job

1. To increase the membership base of ARC England by seeking opportunities to attract new and retain existing members by promoting membership benefits, offering relevant ARC training, events, services and consultancy.
2. To develop and co-ordinate the ARC England Training Calendar and regional network events
3. Facilitate communication and liaison between members and sector stakeholders, such as regulators, commissioners and policy makers.
4. Provide accurate, up to date information to members on issues that affect learning disability service providers by remaining up to date with developments within the sector.
5. To help seek out funding opportunities and prepare bids with support from the Director.

Key Tasks

Relationship Management - To develop and maintain strong relationships across the sector, most importantly with our members.

1. Act as the first key point of contact for ARC England members - by phone and email.
2. To attend meetings on behalf of the England Director (as requested).
3. To share relevant information to members in a timely manner.

Administration

4. Support the co-ordination of regular regional networks, events and conferences.
5. Schedule and process annual membership renewals in March of each year. Follow up with members as required to prompt renewal and/or re-iterate benefits of remaining an ARC member to maximise retention.
6. Design ARC England's Annual Review.
7. Manage all data in relation to our members by regular contact with nominated contacts, monitoring provider websites and shared internal information. This includes updating and maintaining ARC England's database to ensure accuracy of key contact information, recording of size and geographical reach of providers etc.

8. To pro-actively prepare Membership packs and other resources/materials prior to meetings and events.
9. Evaluate and analyse the impact of ARC events/initiatives and follow up with members/customers by use of Survey Monkey, follow up calls/emails and gathering of feedback to shape our work going forward.

Promotion of ARC products and services

10. To organise and create the ARC training offer, ensuring it is relevant to members and other learning disability providers across England, liaising with our Training Associates.
11. To identify opportunities to promote ARC products, training and qualifications and other services by pro-actively engaging with members and potential customers.
12. To seek funding opportunities for project development and assist with bid writing with appropriate managerial support.

General

1. Participate fully in support, supervision, training and development activities and team meetings.
2. Any other duties relevant to the post, as guided by the ARC England Director.
